

Andriy Meleshevych Kyiv-Mohyla School of Governance of National University of Kyiv-Mohyla University (Ukraine)
Caucasus School of Governance of Caucasus University (Georgia)
Department of Administrative Law of Jagiellonian University in Kraków (Poland)
Department Local Government Law of Jagiellonian University in Kraków (Poland)
Department of Public Administration Management of Babes Bolyai University (Romania)
Academic Department of Social Sciences of European Humanities University (Lithuania)

CALL FOR PAPERS

2nd International conference

RESILIENCE IN THE PUBLIC GOVERNANCE ECOSYSTEM: POLICIES AND COMMUNICATION

June 25-26, 2024

Kyiv, Ukraine

The main aim of the conference is to create a forum for discussion of the urgent issues of public governance, evidence-based public policy-making, and government communications under the conditions of new challenges in the EU member states and candidate states, issues urged in Ukraine in the war period and post-war recovery, and to develop recommendations to improve the efficiency of state and local government bodies and implementation of principles of good governance and democratic values.

Co-chairs of the International Board:

Prof. Dr. Valerii Tertychka, Andriy Meleshevych Kyiv-Mohyla School of Governance, National University of Kyiv-Mohyla University (Ukraine);

Prof. Dr. Eka Akobia, Caucasus School of Governance, Caucasus University (Georgia);

Prof. Dr. hab. Iwona Niżnik-Dobosz, Department of Administrative Law, Jagiellonian University in Kraków (Poland);

Dr. hab. Marek Mączyński, Department of Local Government Law, Jagiellonian University in Kraków (Poland);

Ass. Prof. Dr. Bogdana Neamtu, Public Administration and Management Department, Babes Bolyai University (Romania)

Prof. Dr. Ryhor Miniankou, Academic Department of Social Sciences, European Humanities University (Lithuania).

Conference working groups:

WG1: Sustainable development goals and public policies.

WG2: Digitalization and AI and public governance and communication.

WG3: Regional aspects of public governance.

WG4: Governance during war and post war recovery.

Format: online conference

Working languages – English, Ukrainian, Polish

Conference fee – free of charge

Registration of conference participants is obligatory by following the link <https://forms.gle/jYqLrNJQs49ubEw58>

Conference registration deadline June 24, 2024

Invitations will be sent to participants after their participation is confirmed.

The post-conference monograph, subject to a positive review, will be published and will be disseminated in electronic format. The International Board reserves the right to choose for publication of papers that best correspond to the main aim of the conference.

Contact person for the publication of the post-conference monograph – Prof. Dr. Gennadii Riabtsev, Andriy Meleshevych Kyiv-Mohyla School of Governance, g.riabtsev@ukma.edu.ua.

PAPER GUIDELINES

Papers should be submitted in DOC format. None of the other formats are accepted. The maximum file size allowed is 1 MB. Use APA-Style. Font: Times New Roman, size 14. Text should be justified. Space between lines: Single.

All papers must contain the following parts:

Author (first name surname, degree, institution, country and ORCID);

Title (all caps, bold, centered);

Keywords (use maximum of 5 key words);

Introduction (must inform the reader about the aim of the undertaken research; must be written in English; should be whole page);

Main Body (should be around 14...16 pages);

Conclusion;

References (APA-Style).

All papers must be written in English, Ukrainian, and Polish. Before submitting your paper, it should be checked for grammar and typos. Authors are responsible for the language quality and conformity of an article with these guidelines.